

Experience China, Experience The World

--- The Volunteer Mandarin Teaching Program

Program Introduction:

This program is organized by the International Business School (IBS) of Beijing Foreign Studies University (BFSU), aimed to provide partner institutions with the opportunity to have excellent Chinese undergraduates and graduates as volunteers to teach Mandarin and promote mutual cultural exchange.

The young, energetic talents with professional training provided by IBS BFSU will create a wonderful class experience, helping your students improve their Mandarin, understand Chinese culture, and get to know the real, modern-day China in a lively teaching and learning atmosphere.

What We Offer:

- Year-round programs
- Excellent, trustworthy volunteers from renowned Chinese universities
- A rigorous recruitment and training process
- Virtual support before, during and after your project

What You Will Get:

- ✓ Study Certificate for the students who completed the program
- ✓ Native speaker as the Mandarin teacher
- ✓ Online volunteer program for FREE
- ✓ Personalized study plan
- ✓ Building networks with the top Chinese students

How to Participate :

- ❖ You may simply fill in the questionnaire. Our team will contact you to discuss the program details.

你好，北外！

Who we are:

Beijing Foreign Studies University (BFSU)

BFSU is one of China's top universities listed under Project 985, Project 211 and the 1st batch of Double First-Class Universities Project of China. As China's first foreign language university known as the 'cradle of diplomats', BFSU now teaches 101 languages and hosts more than 1,300 international students, with alumni including over 400 ambassadors and 1,000 senior diplomats.

International Business School (IBS)

IBS is the largest school of BFSU and the most international business school in China, with more than 1,500 Chinese students and 600 international students from over 80 countries studying together.

All the volunteers will be selected from undergraduates and graduates studying in renowned Chinese universities. They may not yet be as experienced as older teachers, but they are definitely more creative, energetic and enthusiastic, and most importantly, they will readily become good friends with your students.

Contacts:

: +86 10 8881 6563/6763

: ibsbfsu.international@gmail.com / solbridge@bfsu.edu.cn

: <https://solbridge.bfsu.edu.cn/>

: Room 207, Building 2, 19 North Xisanhuan Avenue, Haidian District, Beijing, 100089, China

If you are in need of volunteer Mandarin teachers, please feel free to contact us.

你好，北外！

